This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

To the Memory of John Codman Ropes and Lloyd McKim Garrison

TWO years ago, when Lloyd McKim Garrison undertook the chief labor of preparing this catalogue, the death of John C. Ropes was still fresh in the minds of all the members of Pudding, and the suggestion to make the book a memorial of him was gladly accepted. Mr. Ropes (of the Class of 1857) had made it part of his scheme of life to keep in close touch with his younger brethren, and to his brethren of the Pudding in particular had been so faithful a comrade that for forty years he was as nearly an active member of the Club as a graduate might be. There were few Pudding plays that he did not see. There were few Pudding men who in the course of their active membership did not often see him. He followed the Club from Stoughton to Jarvis Field, and at a critical time, when another move and a new building became indispensable, he was one of a little group of graduate members who lent their strength to tide the Club over its difficulties. He was a Trustee of the Club with Gordon Abbott and Laurence Curtis during the time when most of the money for the present building was collected, the building put up, and the debt paid off, and it is the testimony of his fellow trustees that his counsels and assistance were of the greatest value. In his character, disposition, and attitude towards his fellows he illustrated in remarkable measure the qualities on the existence of which the success and endurance of associations for social enjoyment depend. He served our Club with his heart, his mind, and his purse, and left behind a memory which the Club does well to cherish.

Mr. Garrison (of the Class of 1888) had hardly begun his labors on this catalogue when his sudden death put an end to them. He had been an enthusiastic member of the Club, tireless in his own work for it, and an inspiration to like work in others. Especially he had done a timely service of great value in collecting and arranging various pictures and records of the Club, of great interest, which he caused to be bound and otherwise preserved for posterity. He had spent himself so freely in the Club's service, had become so widely known and so well beloved among its members, and was missed and mourned so deeply by them, that his name, now that he is gone, has seemed to find its own way to its own place beside that of Mr. Ropes in this volume.

Preface

IN June, 1900, this Catalogue was begun by Lloyd McKim Garrison, '88, and the preliminary steps had been taken at the time of his death. Work on it was not resumed till April, 1901, and as progress on such a book cannot be hasty the indulgence of subscribers is begged for the delay.

A careful revision has been made of the 1891 Catalogue, and the list of members has been brought forward to March, 1902. The present Catalogue contains the names of 4781 members, of whom 3294 survive. This list was composed from consultation with a copy of the 1891 Catalogue, carefully annotated by Lloyd McKim Garrison, one of its editors, the Club Constitution Book, the Secretaries' Records, the Harvard Index, and the Class Reports. For the list of honorary members, not elected as undergraduates, our only source of information was the Secretaries' Records, which unfortunately have not been kept with continuous accuracy.

The degrees, titles, and necrology have in most cases been taken literally from the Harvard Quinquennial Catalogue of 1900, except that Mass. Hist. Soc. has been further abbreviated to M.H.S., Fellow Am. Acad. to F.A.A., and Am. Philos. Soc. to A.P.S. The final spelling of proper names as there indicated has also been followed.

The editors wish to thank the following gentlemen for valuable assistance: John R. Wilkie, Esq., Wendell P. Garrison, Esq., Edward S. Martin, Esq., William Ropes Trask, Esq., and Laurence Curtis, Esq.

All notices of errors or omissions should be sent to us as soon as possible.

Historical Sketch of the Hasty Pudding Club

THE Hasty Pudding Club was founded September 8, 1795, by certain members of the Class of 1797, then beginning their Junior year. Its purpose, embodied in its name, was to meet socially and eat a bowl of Hasty Pudding — a cheap and pleasant variation of the meagre fare of the Commons. The Club was also patriotic, and for a long time had dinners, with toasts to Washington, on his birthday, and on the Fourth of July.

When it was decided to hand it down to posterity, it became necessary to devise some other raison d'ètre than its primitive one; and after a brief and unsuccessful experiment of making it a debating society, the custom of Mock Trials was introduced, which lasted till 1847–48. Towards the latter days of the Trials it became the custom to costume the witnesses, judge, etc.; and this insensibly led to the presenting of regular plays, the first of whose long series, "Bombastes Furioso," was given in December, 1844, at the instance of Lemuel Hayward, Esq., '45.

Up to this time the Club had been without a home, meeting in alternate fortnights in its members' rooms, except that its large library, founded in 1808, had been since 1838 accorded a room in Holworthy by the Corporation.

In 1849 the Corporation accorded the Club two rooms in the North Entry of the Stoughton, and in 1851 an adjoining one. Two of these rooms, connected by removing the partition wall, and in 1871 still further improved by the removal of the ceiling, were provided with a stage. The Club remained in these quarters till 1876, when a fire in the Pi Eta rooms in Hollis alarmed the Corporation, and the Hasty Pudding Club was exiled to very inadequate quarters on Holmes Field, which were in 1880 ill supplemented by additional meeting-rooms in Brattle Street. In 1888, however, a commodious new building, subscribed for by graduates, largely through the interested efforts of Charles Thorndike, Esq., '54, was opened on Holyoke Street, and the Club has, from that time, enjoyed unexampled prosperity.

In 1845 the semi-centennial of the Club was celebrated by a dinner at the United States Hotel, Boston.

1797–1880, with a few exceptions, the Club held semi-annually (and, at first, oftener) a public "Exhibition," at which an Oration and Poem on some imaginative subject were delivered. The President and members of the faculty nearly always were in attendance.

1834–1888 the Club changed from a nominally to a really secret society, with an increasingly severe initiation, which began to be modified in 1881, and was, together with all secrecy, finally abandoned by the class of 1889.

In 1895 the centennial of the Club was celebrated by a memorable entertainment in the Club House, which included a history of the Hasty Pudding Club read by Lloyd McKim Garrison, Esq., '88, an account of the first play by Lemuel Hayward, Esq., '45, and a poem by J. T. Wheelwright, Esq., '76.

The Club is now composed of 90 regular and 10 Honorary members from the Senior class and 50 from the Junior class. It gives three plays a year,—at Christmas, Easter, and "Strawberry Night" (June),—the second of which formerly was repeated in New York, Boston, Cambridge, and occasionally in Philadelphia. Since 1895, owing to faculty restrictions, the Club's tours to New York and other distant places have been abandoned.

In 1891 "The Obispah," with a libretto by B. A. Gould, Esq., '91, and music by R. W. Atkinson, Esq., '91, and L. S. Thompson, Esq., '92, was given; in 1892 "The Sphinx, or Love at Random," libretto by David Gray, Esq., '92, music by L. S. Thompson, Esq., '92; in 1893 "Hamlet, Prince of Denmark; or The Sport, the Spook, and the Spinster," libretto by G. B. Blake, Esq., '93, J. A. Wilder, Esq., '93, and S. F. Batchelder, Esq., '93; in 1894 "Granada," libretto by J. R. Oliver, Esq., '94, music by E. B. Hill, Esq., '94, and D. G. Mason, Esq., '95; in 1895 "Proserpina," libretto by W. Ames, Esq., '95, music by D. G. Mason, Esq., '95; in 1896

"Branglebrink, or A Weary Wanderer's Woeful Wooing," libretto by R. M. Townsend, Esq., '96, music by F. B. Whittemore, Esq., '96, and J. A. Carpenter, Esq., '97; in 1897 "The Flying Dutchman," libretto by M. E. Stone, Jr., Esq., '97, songs by H. T. Nichols, Esq., '97, and the music by J. A. Carpenter, Esq., '97; in 1898 "Boscabello," libretto by H. M. Woodruff, Esq., '98, and F. Curtis, Esq., '98, songs by M. S. Greenough, Esq., '98, and R. P. Utter, Esq., '98, and the music by W. H. Rand, Jr., Esq., '98; in 1899 "Proteus, or The Lightning Change Artist," libretto by J. F. Brice, Esq., '99, music by B. Fairchild, Esq., '99; in 1900 "Witche Hazel," libretto by E. L. Dudley, Esq., '00, and J. H. Holliday, Esq., '00, music by H. Tappin, Esq., '00; and in 1901 "The Dynamiters," libretto by J. G. Forbes, Esq., '01, songs by F. R. Du Bois, Esq., '01, and the music by N. H. Pride, Esq., '01, and M. B. Lang, Esq., '02. The songs and music of each operetta have been published.

Honorary Members

[This list is composed of those Honorary Members of the Hasty Pudding Club elected after graduation; and those never connected with any Academic Class, either as regular members of it, or of the same class in the Lawrence Scientific School, or as Special Students of Harvard College. The letters (L.S.) and (M.S.) in parentheses indicate an election from the Law School or Medical School.]

Elected 1850–1867.

[The practice of electing Honorary Members from the Faculty began about 1857. The eight names following appear in the 1867 Catalogue, but no record of their elections remains. The Secretary's records from 1857–61, which are missing, very probably contained most of them.]

Choristers

[The office of Chorister was instituted in 1801. In 1813, when the sacred music (which it was the Chorister's duty to arrange) was given up, the office lapsed (with but one attempt at revival) till 1829, when the Club's music became of a purely secular character.]

Artists

[Though the Class of 1860 was the first to establish this office, its duties were performed during the preceding years by volunteers, of whose works much remains that is notable. These gentlemen were: JOHN CHANDLER BANCROFT, HORACE HOWARD FURNESS, and WILLIAM STANLEY HASELTINE, '54; ALEXANDER AGASSIZ, '55; ROWLAND MINTURN HALL, '56; JAMES STARR and SAMUEL WELLS, '57; LOUIS CABOT, '58; and EDMUND WETMORE, '60. OLIVER WENDELL HOLMES, '61, ROBERT SWAIN PEABODY, '66, and EDMUND MARCH WHEELWRIGHT, '76, have also acted as Artists without election. In the Constitution of 1889 this office was omitted, but volunteers have continued the work.]

Catalogues of The Hasty Pudding Club

In the first volume of Secretary's Records (p. 6) appear the names of the members of the classes from 1797–1801 inclusive. The signatures, except those of the classes of 1797 and 1798, are in autograph.

Volume II of the Records (pp. 8–10) contains the autograph signatures of the members from 1802–1807 inclusive.

The names were now kept till the class of 1847 in two MS. catalogues containing the membership lists presumably written in by the Secretary from class to class. The first of these catalogues is from 1797–1835 inclusive, and the second from 1838–1846 inclusive, with the substance of the first catalogue copied into it, and separate lists of officers. These catalogues are not reliable, as many elections recorded in the secretaries' minutes are wanting, and their lists of officers are largely untrustworthy.

In 1829 a printed catalogue of the Club was issued, followed at intervals of from five to ten years by ten others. The first catalogue was evidently prepared from the first MS. catalogue, and those which subsequently followed it embraced all the errors of the original.

These catalogues were as follows:

I. 1829. A small pamphlet of thirteen pages, printed by E. W. Metcalf & Co., in Cambridge. It contained the names of 611 living and 127 dead members, and their offices held in the Club (very incorrectly).

II. 1838. Cambridge: Metcalf, Torry & Ballou. 36 pp. Contains the names of 188 new members, living and dead, making the total since the foundation 926. Also a catalogue of books and periodicals in the Club library.

III. 1841. Cambridge: Metcalf, Torry & Ballou. 48 pp. Adds the names of 39 living members [total 1065], and largely increased catalogue of library.

IV. 1846. Cambridge: Metcalf & Co. Small pamphlet of size adopted by every subsequent catalogue. pp. 56. Bears on cover print of Club seal (obverse and reverse). Also (obverse) on title-page and (reverse) on last page the same print repeated. [This feature was not abandoned till 1867 Catalogue.] Contains list of officers in place of library catalogue, and names "more than 1000 members, of whom about 800 are surviving."

V. 1850. Cambridge: Metcalf & Co. pp. 68. Contains names of 1184 members, "of whom 873 are now surviving."

VI. 1855. Cambridge: Metcalf & Co. pp. 76. Contains the names of 1315 members, "of whom 1002 are now surviving." Notes 4500 volumes in the library, an increase for the year of 200.

VII. 1860. Cambridge: Welch, Bigelow & Co. pp. 83. Contains the names of 1449 members, "of whom 985 are now surviving."

VIII. 1867. Boston: Rockwell & Hollins. pp. 94. Contains the names of 1714 members, "of whom 1096 are now surviving"; also, for the first time, a list of Honorary members.

IX. 1874. Boston: Rockwell & Churchill. pp. 112. Contains the names of 1981 members, "of whom 1209 are living."

X. 1884. Cambridge: W. H. Wheeler. pp. 157. Carefully revised. Contains the names of "nearly 3000 members."

XI. 1891. Cambridge: W. H. Wheeler. Contains the names of 3688 members, of whom 2444 survive.

XII. 1902. Jamaica, Queensborough, New-York: The Marion Press. Contains the names of 4781 members, of whom 3294 survive.

Index of Names.

[The names are first arranged alphabetically by family, and then chronologically. The numeral to the left of the year is that under which the name is catalogued; when followed by an h, the name is to be found in the separate list of honorary members. In the case of honoraries elected after graduation, they are arranged with reference to their college class, which follows, instead of preceding the name—e. g.: [1857 h] Ephraim Whitman Gurney, '52.]
